

ALPHONSE

is a coral, triangular-shaped island, with about 1.2 km of coasts, situated in the Amirantes Archipelago, about 450 km south-west of Mahé. It can be reached by plane in one hour.

Alphonse is very particular because of its lagoon (10 km wide), rich in coral, ideal for snorkelling, diving and deep sea fishing and its Coconut palms plantation.

The luxury hotel is composed of 25 bungalows, 5 executive villas and 1 presidential villa, all very spacious and well furnished. Excursions and sport possibilities.
